

Abstract

A method is proposed for optical shape recording and/or evaluation of optically smooth, glossy or optically rough surfaces. It is distinguished in that a photometric stereo method, a deflectometric method and a scattering body (S) are combined so that the positions on the scattering body surface are two-dimensionally encoded.

(Figure 3)